Criminal Convictions

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 is a piece of legislation that exists to support reformed offenders back into employment. It enables some minor offences to become 'spent' after a set period of time. Once the offence has been 'spent', for most purposes the individual is considered fully rehabilitated and treated as though they had never committed or been charged with the crime.

At Numatic, we only ask applicants to disclose convictions which are not yet 'spent' under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. If you are unsure as to whether your convictions are 'spent', please seek definitive legal advice prior to completing this section.

Based on the information above, please answer the following question.

Do you have any 'unspent' convictions?
